What participants have said about previous training programmes hosted by Creativity & Change.

"Inspired me to reflect on current practices and to be inspired to try new ones."

"The themes and methods inspired me no end. The diversity of experience within the group in itself is a major attraction also."

"Creativity... Yes yes! It opens minds and encourages us to be kinder."

"I really like that the theme for this was over-arching and related to everything and everyone, in all aspects of our lives"

"So great to connect with people interested in both Creativity and Global Citizenship"

"Very inspiring to see the power of art and creativity in action"

"My work with young people will change, knowing that young people can have a voice and make a difference by participating in the world with causes that they are passionate about. I want to give them the skills and motivation to make their own projects."

"It was very nice to be surrounded by so many creative people. I will use more tools that I have gathered and be more creative in our interactions/projects."
